Bio

I was born and raised in East London. Some of my earliest memories of music was listening to Motown records in my uncles flat in Lewisham or singing to Mary Mary on a Sunday as my mother drove us to South London for Church.

The people who raised me heavily influenced and shaped my musical education. I grew up enjoying the music of The Supremes, The Temptations, Anita Baker, Sadé, Luther Vandross, Stevie Wonder and the Fugees to name a few. I would say my own writing is reflective
